

Hearth Troop

The Barony is served and defended by Her Champions. Their skill in combat and their courtesy allow us all to live within the Crown's peace. To recognise and thank those Champions who have served well the Hearth Troop was formed.

HERALD Let _____ come before Their Excellencies.

BARON/BARONESS For the last year you have served as Our Champion of the Sword/Bow/Rapier.
Your courtesy and skill have defended Our lands well and We would thank you.

HERALD Be it known to all that _____, having faithfully served the Barony of Aneala as Champion of the Sword/Bow/Rapier, is admitted to the Hearth Troop. As decreed by Nathan and Catherine, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, this _____ day of _____ AS _____.

BARON/BARONESS Please accept from Our hands these ribbons to hang from your banner that all may know that you are of the Hearth Troop.
We ask that you bear them proudly and, if Our need be great, that you will come to Our aid.

HERALD Three cheers for _____, newest member of the Hearth Troop.

Invocation for Baronial Championship List

HERALD Let all those, and their consorts if they so wish, who would enter the lists this day for the Championship of the Sword/Bow/Rapier for the Barony of Aneala, come before Their Excellencies.

BARON/BARONESS As Champion of Aneala you will be required to lead the force of the Barony in war, to defend Us if the need should arise and to Champion any who ask your service on the field of honour. Are you willing to accept these responsibilities?

Challengers I am.

BARON/BARONESS Go now and prepare yourselves.
May you all fight/compete well and honourably.
